Persecuted Church: Myanmar
Widespread, long-running civil war directly affects Christians when they are targeted for attack by the warring factions. Villagers with animistic beliefs take vengeance on Christians, claiming they are angering the local spirits. Church gatherings and church buildings are allowed in many parts of the country, but varies from state to state. Within tribal groups, families oppose conversion, and new believers are subject to close government monitoring. Buddhist monks have actively opposed new Christian converts and evangelists. Pastors face arrest and are usually detained for a few days at a time.

- Pray for workers ministering in dangerous areas.
 - Thank God that the church in Myanmar continues to stand strong.
 - Pray for churches in Myanmar as they navigate political instability and uncertainty.
 - Pray for the complicated political situation in the country.
 - Pray for pastors and believers in the Wa region who have faced increased persecution and imprisonment.
 - Pray for the evangelistic work among Rohingya Muslims.
