Paul and his companions met with roadblocks to ministry.

The man from Macedonia said, "Come over and help us".

Acts 17:16-34 -

Paul went to the Acropolis and the Parthenon.

Paul went throughout the Marketplace, the Agora.

Paul addressed the ruling council (Areopagus) at Mars Hill.

Epicurians - they believed that pleasure was the greatest good.

Stoics - they stressed curbing your desires rather than fulfilling them.

As we examine Paul's teachings, we will see the strength of his approach to sharing his faith which focuses on connecting with people. How do you connect with people so you can share your faith?

1. Establish a point of connection - vs. 22, 23

Evangelism Explosion - Permission to ask two questions

(a) Have you come to the place in your spiritual life where you know for certain that if you died today, you would go to heaven?

(b) Suppose you were to die tonight and stand before God and He were to say to you, "Why should I let you into my heaven?" What do you think you would say?

2. Bring the conversation to include spiritual matters.

(a) The power of God - vs. 24-26

(b) The omnipresence of God - vs. 27, 28

(c) The judgment of God - vs. 29-31

3. Focus on continued dialogue or personal commitment. vs. 32

Persecuted Church: Algeria - Algeria is a shining example of a persevering church in North Africa and is also a leader for theological training and church development in the region. Nearly all of the church growth has occurred within the Berber community. Although churches are allowed to meet openly, in 2018 the government temporarily closed many church buildings and harassed congregations. Berber Christians, who are watched carefully, have gained a collective voice through an association of churches. Sharing the gospel with Arabs can cause serious problems, but Berber Christians continue to share the gospel boldly in and around al-Qaida terrorist camps. Secret communities of Arab Christians exist throughout the country. While it is not common for Christians to be imprisoned, one believer was imprisoned for nearly a year in connection with a social media post.

- Pray for Bible distributors and recipients, as distributions are risky and government officials confiscate Bibles.
- Pray that Christians in Algeria will hold fast to "the faith that was once for all delivered to the saints" (Jude 1:3).
- Pray that churches who have been closed by authorities will find ways to meet and share the gospel despite the risks.
- Pray for a pastor from a Muslim background who was sentenced to prison for holding "unlicensed worship." persecution.com
